Riverview Law opens Manchester office

Wirral-based Riverview Law has today opened its first Manchester office.

The office located at The Hive in the City's Northern Quarter, will initially be occupied by up to 20 Riverview Law staff. The business plans to double the number of staff in Manchester over the next twelve months.

The new opening comes at a time of significant expansion, which has seen revenue growth of over 100% pa in the last few years fuelled by contract wins with large global organisations.

Kate Thomsett, Head of HR at Riverview Law, says: "This is an exciting day for Riverview Law. Manchester has a thriving legal community and like Wirral, will be a great catchment area for us to expand our team and keep ahead of market demand for our services."

Tim Newns, Chief Executive of MIDAS said "Riverview Law's decision to open a Manchester office is a testament to the city's highly evolved financial and professional services sector. The firm joins a large number of legal companies that have chosen to set up an office in Manchester, attracted by the talent, expertise and market opportunity that the city offers. We welcome them to the city, and look forward to continuing to support them as they build their presence"

Riverview Law currently has a range of vacancies in its Manchester and Wirral offices for commercial solicitors, business law executives, client managers and IT professionals. Further information can be found at the Riverview Law Join Us pages.
